

Greenovation develops plant made next generation therapeutics using its proprietary BryoTechnology platform. The company's core competence is optimization and effective production of highly-efficient glycoproteins for the treatment of orphan diseases. Besides developing its proprietary products for rare diseases, Greenovation offers its innovative expression technology for contract development, manufacturing and licensing.

To strengthen our R&D-team in Freiburg i. Br. we are currently recruiting a

Business Development Manager (m/f/d)

(full-time, permanent)

As a Business Development Manager at Greenovation you will be responsible for all aspects of business development. In direct support of our CEO, you widen our network, maintain our relationships and pave the road towards successful closures.

In more detail, your tasks will include:

- Identification of new leads and business opportunities on a global level
- Customer-Relationship-Management
- Quote drafting
- Market analysis
- Competition monitoring
- Close collaboration with Development and Marketing
- Attendance of meetings, conferences, local and national exhibitions

Your profile:

- Master or PhD degree in Life Sciences or equivalent experience
- Strong interest in business development
- Experience in business development is a plus
- Talent in planning and organization
- Superior interpersonal skills
- Excellent written and oral communication skills in German and English
- Team orientation and hands-on approach
- Willingness to frequent travel

We offer:

- Permanent employment
- Cooperative and motivating working environment
- Work on a novel and unique expression system
- Options for further training

More information on Greenovation Biotech GmbH:
www.greenovation.com

We are looking forward to your informative application documents!
Please send your application (cover letter, CV, certificates), preferred via email as pdf file,
to:

Greenovation Biotech GmbH
Human Resources
Hans-Bunte-Strasse 19
79108 Freiburg
hr@greenovation.com